- PLEASE NOTE: Due to the number of announcements between Sabbath School and Church, the Elders have requested a change in the way announcements are made: All announcements must be placed in the Church bulletin by contacting Sharon Walker no later than the Wednesday prior to that Sabbath. Urgent announcements outside of the printed bulletin should be rare and must be communicated directly to the Elder in Charge of Platform Duties for that Sabbath and the Elder in Charge will make the announcement with his morning welcome between Sabbath School and Church. –David Kellogg
- NEWSLETTER: The May/June Newsletter is being prepared now, so if you have an item you would like to submit for publication, please give it to Faith Lyons asap. Thanks.

- THANK YOU: 1) I wish to say "Thanks much!" to the young ladies who helped in my kitchen and on my deck last Sunday. Your help was much appreciated. God bless all the Pathfinders who are Oshkosh bound. –Mary Weigle 2) Thank you, Keenagers, for the wonderful farewell you gave us. We love all of you and will miss you but feel this is the Lord's guiding. God Bless and let's meet in heaven. Our new address is 721 Wells Ave., Eagle Bend, MN 56446. –Vernon and Joan Anderson
- TODAY'S THOUGHT: "The love of God as manifested in Jesus, will lead us to the true conception of the character of God. As we behold Christ, pierced for our sins, we shall see that we cannot break the law of God and remain in His favor; we shall feel that as sinners we must lay hold of the merits of Christ and cease to sin. Then we are drawing nigh to God. As soon as we have a correct view of the love of God, we shall have no disposition to abuse it." Ellen G. White, Selected Messages, Book 1, pg. 312.
