TODAY'S THOUGHT: "Notwithstanding all this, the church is found wanting. What is the fatal deficiency? "Thou hast left thy first love." Is not this our case? Our doctrines may be correct; we may hate false doctrine, and may not receive those who are not true to principle; we may labor with untiring energy; but even this is not sufficient. What is our motive? Why are we called upon to repent? "Thou hast left thy first love." Ellen G. White, Selected Messages, bk. 1, p. 370.
